

Is God calling you? Come and find out during the Marian Sisters'

Vocations Weekend

March 17-19, 2017

St. Michael's Convent

This may be the most important decision of your entire life — but are you just pushing it to the back of your mind?

God may be offering you the priceless gift of a vocation to the religious life.

Many souls may be hanging in the balance over the decision you make.

Meet young women who, like you, were once fearful and full of doubt — but are no longer...

Experience convent life;
Pray and reflect about
your future;
Ask questions.

Give Our Lord
a chance.
Come and see...

My child, listen to the voice of my Divine Son:

“Come, follow Me...”

So few love Him today, and even fewer love Him enough to sacrifice themselves entirely for His sake and for souls. The harvest is great, and the laborers too few, and so many souls are being lost.

Jesus calls many to follow Him, but few will even consider it. The world and its pleasures drown out His voice. What more can He do to show His love?

Are you afraid? Do you think religious life is sad and lonely?

Ah, if you only knew what treasures He gives to those who give Him all, and what happiness they experience both in this life and in the next...

Sponsored by the Sisters of the Congregation of Mary Immaculate Queen

* Young women who are at least juniors in high school and single women 35 or under, please contact:

Vocations Directress
St. Michael's Convent
8502 North St. Michael's Road
Spokane, WA 99217-9333

Email: smagatha@cmri.org • Phone: (509) 467-0986 ext. 103