

Is God calling you? Come find out during the

Vocations Weekend

March 16-18, 2018

St. Michael's Convent
Spokane, Washington

You may have a sense that God has entrusted you with a precious secret — an invitation to follow Him — but you're not sure . . .

You may be struggling with the question of vocation, fearing that by entering the convent you give up all happiness in life . . .

You may want to be like everyone else, but somehow it all seems to be so empty . . .

Or — you may just be curious about life in the convent . . .

This is a chance for you to come and see . . .

- Follow the schedule along with the Sisters and see how they live, work, pray, play
- Attend Holy Mass, the recitation of the Divine Office, community prayers with the nuns
- Learn about the vows and religious life, about silence, prayer and recollection
- See what motivates the Sisters in their various works and activities
- Speak with Sisters informally about questions you may have about convent life:
- Spend time in reflection and prayer about your future

Single young women who are at least juniors in high school up to the age of 35 who are interested in a religious vocation are welcome.

 Register online at www.CMRI.org — there is no fee for attending *****

We invite those who will be traveling from outside the Spokane area to come a day early. We will provide your meals and lodging, as well as enjoyable activities until the Vocations Weekend begins at 3:30 p.m. on Friday, March 16.

Sponsored by the Sisters of the Congregation of Mary Immaculate Queen
