“She Shall Crush Thy Head”

Rev. Fr. Michael Anaya recently celebrated the 25th anniversary of his ordination by His Excellency, Bishop Pivarunas, which took place on July 1, 1997. Since then, he has served in various parishes of our religious congregation, eventually becoming pastor of St. Mary’s Church in Tacoma, Washington. In addition to his pastoral duties in Tacoma, Father teaches in the parish school. He also comes to Spokane every year to be the emcee for our annual Fatima Conference. As such, he has the necessary task of keeping everything running smoothly and on time. At this Conference we will celebrate his 25 years of labor in Our Lord’s vineyard, and pray that he will enjoy many more years of priesthood.

Rev. Fr. Dominic Radecki, CMRI, was ordained, along with his twin brother, by Bishop Robert McKenna in 1988, and has been pastor of Queen of Angels Church in Santa Clarita, California, for 34 years. He is also pastor of Immaculate Heart of Mary Church in Rosamond, California. Fr. Dominic is the general treasurer of the religious congregation and the director of Mary Immaculate Queen Confraternity. As such, he contributes regularly to The Reign of Mary in the column for Confraternity members entitled Servus Mariae. He is a regular speaker at our annual Fatima Conference, addressing various topics of the spiritual life.

Rev. Father Gabriel Lavery, CMRI: Fr. Gabriel was ordained to the holy priesthood on May 31, 2003. Since then he has served in several different parishes of the Congregation. He currently resides at Sacred Heart of Jesus Church in Akron, Ohio, and is also pastor of Our Mother of Perpetual Help Church in Sulphur Springs, Ohio. He has been a speaker in past Conferences, although it has been several years since he last spoke at the Conference.

Rev. Mr. John Rosemond: John Rosemond earned his Masters in Psychology degree from Western Illinois University in 1971. After spending two decades as a family psychologist, John began to devote all his time to speaking and writing. He has written eleven best-selling parenting books and also writes a regular syndicated article on parenting that appears in 225 newspapers around the country. He has also appeared on numerous television programs and is considered an expert in the area of parenting. John maintains a hectic schedule of travel and is recognized as America’s most popular speaker on parenting and family issues.

Rev. Fr. M. Bernard Welp, CMRI: Fr. Bernard was raised in our parish of Saint Michael’s, where he attended Saint Michael’s Academy. After starting a career as a nurse, he recognized a vocation and entered Mater Dei Seminary. Father was ordained on October 7, 2008, during that year’s Fatima Conference. He currently resides at Mount St. Michael where he is an assistant to Fr. Casimir in the parish and school. He also frequently travels to various missions. Father will deliver one of the conferences during our day of recollection on Friday.

Rev. Fr. Philip M. Davis, CMRI: Fr. Philip Marie was ordained by His Excellency on May 3, 2018. After some time in Omaha and Minnesota, he now resides at the City of Mary in Rathdrum, where he is assistant to Fr. Benedict at Mary Immaculate Queen Parish. He also teaches, both at St. Joseph Seminary and in the parish school. In addition to his teaching duties, Fr. Philip Marie travels regularly to provide Mass at the missions in Boise and Lewiston, Idaho. Again this year he will preach one of the spiritual conferences during our day of recollection on Friday.

Mr. John Rosemond

* We are sorry that we have had to raise our fees this year. It has been many years since these rates have been changed, and so it was actually long overdue, even in terms of “normal” inflation. The very high inflation of recent months, however, has made it even more necessary to increase our prices so that we can cover costs.

The very high inflation of recent months, however, has made it even more necessary to increase our prices so that we can cover costs.

Most Rev. Mark A. Pivarunas, CMRI: His Excellency, Bishop Pivarunas, was consecrated more than 31 years ago by the late Bishop Moises Carmona (on Sept. 24, 1991.) Bishop Pivarunas is the superior general of the Congregation of Mary Immaculate Queen, pastor of Mary Immaculate Church in Omaha, rector of Mater Dei Seminary, and principal of Mater Dei Academy. His Excellency also founded the Congregation of Sisters of the Mother of God to assist in his work for souls. Bishop Pivarunas is a regular speaker at our annual Fatima Conference, discussing current affairs of the Church in these times of apostasy.

Rev. Fr. Casimir Puskorius, CMRI: Ordained by Bishop George Muey in 1986, Fr. Casimir served in several parishes before taking up residence at Mount St. Michael in 2001. Since then, he has served as pastor of “The Mount,” which is our largest parish. In addition to his many duties here as pastor, Father also teaches at St. Michael’s Academy. Fr. Casimir Maria is also an accomplished pianist and enjoys playing the organ for various ceremonies, sometimes also joining with the choir to sing when he is not himself offering the Mass. Father is a regular speaker at the annual Fatima Conference.

Rev. Fr. Benedict Hughes, CMRI: Over the years as a priest and religious, Fr. Benedict has spent his life in various works in the service of Our Blessed Mother, particularly in the field of education. Having taught for some years in our school at Mount St. Michael and in the major seminary, Father eventually began the work of our minor seminary in 1999. Fr. Benedict is the pastor of Mary Immaculate Queen Church and rector of St. Joseph Seminary in nearby Rathdrum, Idaho. He is also the editor of The Reign of Mary, the official magazine of the Congregation of Mary Immaculate Queen.

Rev. Fr. James McGilloway, CMRI: Fr. James is the oldest of the CMRI priests, having been a religious for more than 50 years. He has labored for souls at parishes in Ohio and Michigan, as well as at Mount St. Michael, where he currently resides. In last year’s Conference, Fr. James gave the keynote address, sharing with everyone his love for Our Lady and incalculating the perennial importance of her Fatima message. This year he will speak during the Day of Recollection on Friday.
